

Southern Idaho Climbing Coalition

Fall 2022

Our Mission is "To promote climbing, provide a resource for responsible development and conservation of climbing areas, and to encourage the etiquette, education and safety of the Southern Idaho climbing community."

Message From the Board

Our 5th Annual Southern Idaho Climbing Coalition Fundraiser banquet was a huge hit. It was great to see everyone dressed to impress and having a good time. We raised approximately $9,000. These funds will be a great help as we continue to maintain local crags, work towards improved access, and encourage education and safety in the Southern Idaho climbing community. If you missed this event be sure to support your Local Climbing Coalition and become a member. Memberships can be purchased online at our website climbsicc.com. We would like to thank each of our sponsors for their generous donations. We would also like to thank El Sombrero Restaurant for providing us with an amazing venue.

As we move into the new year we express gratitude to those leaving the board and welcome and congratulate our new board members as well. Austin Davis and Chelsea Lyda have generously served on the SICC board for the last two years. Thank you Austin and Chelsea for your service. We welcome Ian Cavanaugh and Ben Lyda to the board and look forward to working with them.

Friendly Reminder

Temperatures are cooling down and Fall climbing is upon us. Use good judgment and follow safe practices. We would also like to remind climbers to obey the law and practice good manners. Please stay off of private property without express permission from the land owners and be respectful to rangers, security, and law enforcement. Two local crags that are currently closed to the public include The Climbers Corral and The Colosseum. We will keep you updated if anything changes and public access becomes available again.

Committee Reports

From Tyler McOmber, Treasurer:

SICC's 2022 membership banquet was a historic success! Thank you to all our members and sponsors who supported this event. We raised approximately $9,000 after all expenses were paid, and now have over 90 members. Sponsors this year were incredibly generous in their donations, making the raffle and auction exceptional. We appreciate those who attended, brought friends and family, and were generous in their purchases. Thank you to Auctioneer Mike Young, and to the 2022 Board for making this event so successful. We are in a better position to continue our mission: "To promote climbing, provide a resource for responsible development and conservation of climbing areas, and to encourage the etiquette, education, and safety of the Southern Idaho climbing community." Thank you all for your support!
